

We've been an XM Satellite Radio subscriber for a year now and find it's a great service. The weather and traffic reports while commuting is very beneficial. They offer a variety of news and entertainment services that cannot be found from any other broadcasting service. I strongly discourage any legislation that would stifle this emerging industry.